Re: CITGO Petroleum Corporation v. Petroleum Logistics Service Corp., and Jose Manuel Gonzalez Testino, No: 4:20-cv-01820

Dear Judge Edison:

In accordance with Rule 1.E. of Your Honor's Court Procedures, I write on behalf of Plaintiff CITGO Petroleum Corporation ("CITGO") with respect to the scheduling order issued by this Court on August 27, 2020 ("Scheduling Order").

The Scheduling Order set an initial pretrial and scheduling conference for November 12, 2020 and further directed the parties to meet and confer in advance of the hearing and to submit a joint discovery/case management plan for this litigation. As the Court is aware, CITGO effected service on both Defendants: (1) on August 21, 2020, CITGO filed proof of service on Petroleum Logistics Service Corp. ("PLS") through service on the Texas Secretary of State; and (2) on October 7, 2020, CITGO filed proof of service on Jose Manuel Gonzalez Testino (together with PLS, "Defendants") in accordance with the Court's August 24, 2017 Order granting substitute service. Since this time, Defendants have not appeared in this litigation nor otherwise responded to Willkie's many attempts to contact Defendants.

As a result of Defendants' failure to appear or otherwise respond, CITGO has not been able to meet and confer with Defendants and is unable to file a joint discovery/case management plan. For the same reasons, CITGO also requests that the November 12, 2020 scheduling conference be adjourned while CITGO considers its next steps with regards to how to proceed in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Sarah M. Wastler
